

Omnia Inclusive Employment Solutions welcomes Matt Little as Chief Executive Officer

Omnia Inclusive, a leading disability employment and Youth NDIS specialists, is excited to welcome Matt Little as our new Chief Executive effective from the 17th of July 2023.

Matt has an impressive career spanning 25 years in the Employment Services industry, consistently being focused on disability, disadvantage, and innovation. As an industry leader, Matt has played a pivotal role in shaping progress within the Disability Employment sector. He is a former CEO of the CoAct network and is currently the Chair of the National Employment Services Australia (NESA) Board. Matt's unwavering dedication to driving positive change has made a significant impact throughout his professional journey.

Matt's appointment follows the recent resignation of Deborah Lambourne who made a significant contribution to the company's growth and success since 2019.

Omnia Inclusive is thrilled to welcome Matt as the CEO, as his extensive experience and commitment to disability services align perfectly with our mission.

For media enquiries, please contact:

John Stewart

Chair Person and Director

Omnia Inclusive Employment Solutions

0412 022 430

About Omnia Inclusive Employment Solutions

Omnia Inclusive is one of Australia's leading specialist diversity recruitment partners, a youth NDIS provider and a trusted business consultancy on developing diversity and inclusion capabilities. In 30 years, the organisation has successfully partnered with hundreds of businesses and more than 25,000 candidates to provide meaningful, long-term employment opportunities and career progression, including support for youth and school leavers to achieve greater social, independence and employment skills.