Omnia Inclusive Employment Solutions Announces Matthew Little as Permanent CEO

12th December 2023

Omnia Inclusive Employment Solutions is delighted to formally announce the permanent appointment of Mr Matthew Little as the Chief Executive Officer, effective January 17, 2024. Initially serving in an acting capacity since 2023, Matt has exemplified remarkable leadership and an unwavering commitment to our core values.

Matt brings over 25 years of rich experience in the Employment Services industry, with a special focus on supporting individuals with disabilities and those facing disadvantages. His tenure includes influential roles such as leading the CoAct network from 2013 to 2022 and past chair of the National Employment Services Australia (NESA) Board.

John Stewart, Chair of Omnia Inclusive, said, "Matt's strategic vision and adept leadership have been vital in guiding our organization through a critical phase of growth. His passion for inclusive employment and his innovative mindset are precisely what we need as we strive to make inclusive employment a tangible reality for everyone. Matt's experience and industry knowledge has swiftly improved our financial performance and operational effectiveness."

In response to his appointment, Matthew Little stated, "I am honored to continue my journey with Omnia Inclusive as the CEO. In these times of rapid change, being well prepared for the future of employment services is paramount. We are committed to innovating and adapting to the evolving landscape, leveraging our deep local relationships to expectations and needs of those we serve."

With Matt at the helm, Omnia Inclusive is poised to expand its impact further, continuing to champion inclusive employment solutions and fostering an equitable workplace for all.
